

Hello,

As we're now uploading work at noon on Mondays, here are a few ideas for activities for future Monday mornings:

TT Rockstars

Busy Things

Read a book and/or write a book review

Topmarks website for maths games

Do the next comprehension in your book.

As always you can contact us through our class email and remember you do not have to print out sheets of stuff but view it on the screen and use your exercise books.

Maths

This week we are continuing to use the four operations to solve word problems.

English

This week we are looking at Martin Luther King's inspirational speech to inspire writing about our own dreams for the future.

E&D

We're going to start a new topic on Space. To begin with, we'd like you to research anything about the different planets, Earth, our sun etc. Record your research in your English book or on paper.

Possible websites to use are:

Transition

We're starting to reflect on our time at primary school and look forward to moving up to our new secondary schools.

Activity 1:

Think about what will be the same at your new school and what will be different e.g. still wear a school uniform but maybe now it'll include a tie and blazer. Looking at your list, what are you excited about or nervous about? Talk about these with an adult or older sibling.

Activity 2:

Using the moving on up resource cards, talk about the different scenarios and think about ways to help alleviate any anxieties.

Votes for schools

Go to the Keston website, distant learning and votes for schools. Here you will find a new topic to debate, discuss and explore. It is a perfect opportunity to sit down with the family and have a debate. Let us know your thoughts.
