

Key Vocabulary Year 3 Spring

Maths

Fraction - A part of a whole. A common fraction is made up of a numerator and a denominator.

Numerator → 3

Denominator → 4

Numerator - This is the number that goes on top of the fraction. It means the amount of equal parts being referred to.

Denominator - This is the number that goes at the bottom of the fraction. It means the total amount of equal parts that the number/object has been split into.

Equal - This means groups that are the same. It is really important to remember that fractions are equal groups.

Multiplication - a quick way of adding lots of the same number $6+6+6+6+6=$ or we can say e.g. 5 lots of 6 or 5×6 .

Product - multiplying numbers together.

English

ISPACe openers - We use ISPACe as an acronym to help us with ideas for interesting openers to our sentences.

I ing - Smiling sweetly, she turned and walked away.

S simile- I like the chocolates in the box, she vanished quickly.

P preposition- On the top of the hill, the wolf stood and watched.

A adverb- Hurriedly, he snatched the ticket.

C conjunction- When he found his bone, the dog settled at the bottom of the stairs.

E ed. Pleased with what he had done, he stood back and admired his work.

D dialogue- "Who can that be?" Kate asked herself, as he heard a loud, slow knocking on the door.

Comma - A comma is a punctuation mark that separates items in a list and marks the divisions within sentences.

Main clause - groups of words that contain a subject and a verb and make sense on their own i.e. a sentence. The cat sat on the mat.

Subordinated clause - attached to a main clause because it cannot make sense on its own, although it contains a subject and a verb. At midnight, the cat sat on the mat.

Embedded Clause - An embedded clause is a clause that fits in the middle of a sentence. It adds extra detail but isn't a necessary part of the sentence. The embedded clause is always shown by using a pair of commas.

E.g. The friendly local cat, who always came around looking for food, had mysteriously disappeared.

Writing genre - a style of writing e.g. recount, information text, story.
